UPDATE ON REOPENING OF RETAIL CENTRES

Further to the SENS of 14 July, Resilient provides the following update to stakeholders.

Essential services at Galleria Mall and Arbour Crossing have been open and trading since Saturday, 17 July. These include Checkers Hyper, Pick n Pay Hypermarket, Food Lover’s Market, Pick n Pay supermarket, Game, Woolworths, Clicks and Dis-Chem. Both centres are expected to be fully open for trade tomorrow.

The Shoprite and Game stores at Mams Mall reopened for trade on Saturday, 17 July. The Pick n Pay, Clicks and Dis-Chem stores that sustained limited damage will open on Wednesday, 24 July. The Boxer store and Nizaams that were damaged and looted are undergoing repairs and are scheduled to reopen on Friday, 23 July.

Jabulani Mall that was extensively looted has been cleared and cleaned in partnership with the local community and other support groups. The Shoprite store is anticipated to reopen by month-end. Opening of the remaining shops is constrained by the limited availability of shopfronts and glass.

All other retail centres in the portfolio are fully open for trade.
